Declaration of Inventors Pursuant to 37 CFR §1.131

Sir:

I, G. Eric Engstrom, hereby declare that:

1. I am a citizen of the United States of America, and currently a resident of the State of Washington, residing in or around the greater Seattle, metropolitan area.

2. I am the inventor of the subject matters of the above-captioned application, as originally declared on or around January 2, 2001 in the combined declaration and power of attorney filed on or about February 7, 2001.

3. To the best of my recollection, and as refreshed by the enclosed memorandum to file of my counsel, dated March 7, 2000, summarizing the subject matters of the invention disclosure meeting I have with my counsel no later than

Attorney Docket No. 109911-130414

Patent

March 7, 2000, I have conceived the invention of the present application on or before March 7, 2000. Each of the subject matters disclosed in the meeting was given a short easy to remember "title", and a very short description. The subject matter of the present application, for ease to remember, was given the short titles of "Communication – Parent button" (Item 9), "Communication – I'm here button" (item 10) and "Communication + Heart Rate Monitor" (item 12) at the time.

4. I additionally declare that I've been diligent working with my counsel since that time, as supported by the annotated version of the March 7, 2000 memo, updated with the application/patent numbers and filing dates, in getting letter patent applications prepared for the subject matters disclosed in the meeting in the ensuing months, including in particular, the subject patent application, filed on 10/15/2000.

I further declare that all statements made herein of our own individual knowledge are true and that all statements made on information and belief are believed to be true; and further that these statements were made with the knowledge that willful false statements and the like so made are punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both, under Section 1001 of Title 18 of the United States Code, and that such willful false statements may jeopardize the validity of the above-identified patent application or any patent issued thereon.

Executed by and on the date(s) as set forth below:
